- There are unreserved parking spaces in the south paddock behind the tire companies, as well as outside Turn 5.
- The parking fee is assessed per space regardless of the number of racecars. It is the competitor's responsibility to fit their vehicles and equipment within the reserved space. Chicago Region reserves the right to reject reserved competitor parking applications that do not conform to these requirements.
- Any vehicles, transports, etc. that are parked in areas other than the entrant's reserved space may be moved to allow the rightful occupant access. Chicago Region and Road America will not be held liable for any damage caused during removal.
- There is no fuel storage or running of engines inside the garages.
- Competitors that choose "Parking with Team" must identify the team they are parking with to insure they are properly assigned.
- Reserved parking applications must select a choice for parking spaces. Every effort, including Email, phone and fax will be made to notify you of your site assignment or to get additional choices if the original ones are unavailable. In addition, reserved space assignments will be confirmed with the credentialed competitor at the parking assignment station by the Billy Mitchell bend after registration Adjustments may have been made to parking locations, so prior notifications are not a guarantee that a given parking space assignment is still valid. Requests for specific spaces or prior occupancy not a guarantee of space assignment.
- Groups that wish to paddock together and require more than one space must submit all parking applications together to ensure that adjoining spaces are available. Parking spaces will not be held without a registration and parking application.
- Paddock parking, either reserved or unreserved, is exclusively for competitors and their equipment. Of Note: If a motor home is parked in a paddock space and it is used for overnight accommodations, there will be no additional fee in addition to the SCCA competitor parking fee.
- Canopies are ordered through Road America. Road America will only erect canopies on reserved paddock spaces assigned by the Chicago Region SCCA or in the designated unreserved parking areas. Erection of canopies not ordered through Road America, particularly in paved areas, may be subject to fine if surface damage is incurred.
- Chicago Region reserves the right to reassign reserved spaces if they become available during the weekend.
- Competitors who are not in their designated reserved parking place by the end of their race group's first qualifying session will forfeit their space unless they have notified Chicago Region of late arrival. To notify us of late arrival, please email registration@junesprints.com with subject "Reserved Paddock Late Arrival".
- Road America and Chicago Competitor Reserved Parking Committee Staff will assist in placing you in your assigned location. All parking must be done with an official escort. After hours parking without an official escort is expressly forbidden.
- All competitors who cancel their entry are also canceling their parking assignment. Make sure if you are sharing with another competitor that they are aware of your cancellations. These spaces will be reassigned by the Chicago Competitor Reserved Parking Committee. Refunds for parking reservations may be withheld if the space is unable to be reassigned.

All camping arrangements outside of paddock spots will need to be coordinated directly with Road America. Fees and availability are at the discretion of Road America and Chicago Region has no control over this. Any and all questions should be addressed directly to Road America.
